PREFACE.

THE Musical Department of the Leeds Public Free Library was commenced in 1884, when some 550 volumes of Oratorios, Operas, Songs, &c., were purchased from the Trustees of the late Mr. Blackburn, of Horsforth. The works were placed in the Reference Department, but they were not much used in consequence of being imperfectly catalogued. With the object, therefore, of remedying this defect, the Committee decided that a separate Catalogue should be prepared and printed, and placed on sale. At the same time it was considered advisable to make a considerable addition to the Library by purchasing the best editions of the scores of such composers as Brahms, Tschaikowsky, Wagner, Saint-Saëns, Liszt, Dvořák, Strauss, Merkel, Rheinberger, Sullivan, Macfarren, Elgar, Parry, Coleridge Taylor, Stanford, Mackenzie, and others.

The works included in this Catalogue number upwards of 2,000, many of them being extremely valuable, and not easily accessible to the general public, except by means of the Public Library, because of their expensiveness.

In the compilation of the Catalogue each work has been placed under the composer or author's name, and under the subject, such as Anthems, Cantatas, Glees, Organ Music, Oratorios, Operas, Songs, &c. The principal entry, i.e., where full particulars are given respecting a score, will be found under the subject, but with respect to Biographies and other Musical Literature, this information is placed under the author's name.

To better facilitate the use of the Catalogue, Subject Headings have been printed in heavy type, whilst the contents of volumes have been set out under the subject heading, in small type.

The Catalogue is divided into two sections:—Section I. contains the works in the Central Lending Library, and these will be issued to borrowers in the ordinary way. Section II. embraces the Music in the Reference Library, which may be obtained on personal application being made to the City Librarian.

The Committee anticipate the most satisfactory results from the publication of the Catalogue, as they hope and believe that a useful and important educational purpose will be served by drawing special attention to the resources of the Library on the subject of Music.

In conclusion, I desire to record my cordial appreciation of the assistance so readily given by Mr. H. A. Fricker, Mus. Bac., F.R.C.O., City Organist, in the selection and classification of the Music, and to Mr. Frank Kidson for many valuable suggestions. I also take this opportunity to acknowledge the aid received from my Assistants, Mr. J. W. Walker, and Mr. George W. Strother, in every part of the work involved in the preparation of the Catalogue.

Irish Melodies, A Selection of Irish Melodies.

With Symphonies and Accompaniments

by Sir J. Stevenson, and Characteristic

Words by Thomas Moore. 3640 K

Contents:—Vol. I. Carolan's Concerto; The Pleasant

Rocks; Planxty Drury; The Beardless Boy; Go Where

Glory waits thee; Remember the Glories of Brien the Brave; Erin! the Tear and the Smile; Oh! Breathe not his Name; When he who Adores Thee; The Harp that once thro' Tara's Halls; Fly not yet, 'tis just the Hour;

Oh think not my Spirits are always light; Tho' the last

Glimpse of Erin; Rich and rare were the Gems she wore;

As a Beam o'er the Face of the Waters may glow; The Meeting of the Waters.

Vol. II. O Jean d'ulh Delish; The Snowy-breasted Pearl;

Planxty Johnstone; Captain Magan; Like the bright

Lamp; Drink to her; O blame not the Bard; While gazing on the Moon's Light; When daylight was yet sleeping under the Billow; By the Hope within us springing; Night closed around; Oh! 'tis sweet to think; Thro'

Grief and thro' Danger; When thro' Life unblest we rove; It is not the Tear at this moment shed; 'Tis believed that this Harp.

Vol. III. Thro' Erin's Isle; At the mid Hour of Night;

One Bumper at Parting; 'Tis the last Rose of Summer;

The Young May Moon; The Minstrel-Boy; The Valley

lay smiling before me; Oh! had we some bright little

Isle; Farewell! but whenever you welcome the Hour;

Oh! doubt me not; You remember Ellen; I'd mourn the Hopes that leave me.

 Bergt (C. G. A.) Anthems783-4, 5
 Boyce (W.) Anthems783-4, 1

Contents Vol. I:—

Be Thou My Judge, O Lord; By the Waters of Babylon; Give the King Thy Judgments, O God; If We Believe that Jesus Died; O Be Joyful in God
 all Ye Lands; O Give Thanks Unto the Lord; O Praise the Lord Ye That Fear Him; O Sing Unto
 the Lord a New Song; Praise the Lord Ye Servants;
 Sing, O Heavens; Sing Praises to the Lord; Teach
 Me, O Lord, the Way of Thy Statutes; The Lord Liveth; Turn Thee Unto Me; Wherewithal shall
 a Young Man Cleanse his Way.

Vol. II.

Blessed is He; Blessed is the Man; I Have Surely Built Thee an House; Lord Who Shall Dwell in Thy Tabernacle; O Give Thanks; O Where Shall be Found?; Sing Unto the Lord; The Heavens Declare the Glory of God; The Lord is King; The Lord is My Light; The Lord is Full of Compassion and Mercy.

Vol. III.

Blessing and Glory; Burial Service in E Minor; Hear My Crying; I Cried unto the Lord; I Have Set God Always Before Me; Like as the Hart; Lord
 What is Man; Ponder My Words, O Lord; Save Me O God; Turn Thee Unto Me, O Lord.

Vol. IV.

Blessed is He that Considereth the Poor; Give Unto
 the Lord O Ye Mighty; Here Shall Soft Charity; How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me; O Be Joyful in God; Lord Teach Us to Number Our Days; Lord
 Thou Hast Been Our Refuge.
